

*Robin Grove
Highgate N6*

A rarely available five/six bedroom, double fronted detached family house situated in this highly sought after private close of just seven houses.

This attractive 1930s built property is discreetly located in a peaceful country setting and boasts bright, well planned accommodation, over only three floors. This fine family home features three well-proportioned reception rooms and a fabulous double volume conservatory that opens out onto and overlooks a beautifully landscaped garden which extends to over 160', with a large terrace and lawn.

The house also benefits from access to the Holly Lodge Communal Gardens and is positioned within walking distance of The Heath, Highgate Village and most of the local schools. In addition, there is residents parking and a single lock up garage.
